EMPLOYMENT

Assistant Professor of Business Administration 2018-
University of Virginia, Darden School of Business
(Data Analytics and Decision Sciences area)

EDUCATION

PhD in Management – INSEAD 2018
MSc in Management – INSEAD 2015
MBA – Cotrugli Business School Zagreb 2010
MSc, BSc in Mathematics – University of Zagreb 2008

RESEARCH INTERESTS

I study incentives in multi-agent systems such as healthcare and matching markets (both centralized and decentralized). Methodologically, my research relies on stochastic dynamic games, search theory, dynamic mechanism design, contract theory, and data driven simulations.

WORK IN PROGRESS

Dynamic Principal-Agent Framework for Stochastic Games

Interdependencies in Managing Research Projects (with I. Tsetlin and V. Smirnov)

Optimal Index Policies for Normal Search under Uncertainty without Recall (with Z. Xu and M. Baucells)

Optimal Index Policies for Sequential Search: A Unified Framework Under Bayesian Learning (with Z. Xu and M. Baucells)

Revealed Preferences and the Choice of Residency (with R. Grauer, D. Ranti, and K. Greene)

Empirical Stopping Rules for Search (with M. Baucells and J. Mamer)

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Decision Analysis (DA) – University of Virginia DA is a core MBA course covering probability, statistics, decision theory and econometrics.	2018-
Darden Before Darden – University of Virginia DBD is a 7-day pre-matriculation program for incoming MBA students.	2019-
Games, Competition, and Cooperation – University of Virginia GCC is a business-application-focused game theory elective for MBA students.	2023-
Dynamic Programming – University of Virginia DP is a methodological course for PhD students.	2024-
Uncertainty, Data, and Judgment – INSEAD UDJ is a core MBA course covering probability, statistics, decision theory and econometrics.	2025

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

A.T. Kearney - Consultant Project experience includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Product development strategy for a global technology market leader • National economic strategy for an East European government • Incentive design for sales force and innovation in a regional FMCG firm • Restructuring and post-merger integration in several European banks 	2009-2013
